REGIONAL CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the Tzafon Region of the United Synagogue Youth, affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, in order to strengthen Jewish identity through increasing awareness of local, national and international issues affecting Jews, Israeli issues, Judaic knowledge, promoting Tikkun Olam, fostering lasting friendships, and ensuring the safety and welfare of our members, also recognize the fact that youth must perpetuate Judaism and are cognizant of the historical and cultural background of our people, do hereby establish this as the constitution for Tzafon Region USY.

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Tzafon Region of United Synagogue Youth of the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism.

ARTICLE II: AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Section I – The Aim

The aim of Tzafon Region USY is to offer opportunities to Jewish youth to continue and strengthen their identification with Judaism and with the Synagogue as the central agency of Jewish life, as well as with Israel in keeping with the Zionist tradition. In furthering this aim, Tzafon Region USY seeks to develop a program based on the personal development, needs and interests of the Jewish teenager as they relate to the principles of Conservative Judaism and strives to equip its teenage members with the tools necessary to incorporate that tradition into everyday life.

Section II - The Objectives

A. Study

A knowledge of the Jewish heritage and ideals is essential to creative Jewish living. Therefore, Tzafon Region USY dedicates itself to the ideals of Jewish learning by:

1. Encouraging its members to attend existing institutions of learning.
2. Encouraging its members to read books of Jewish interest and to undertake a program of individual study (Home Study Program).
3. Encouraging its chapters to establish programs of group study.
4. Encouraging its members to further their interest in Jewish areas.

B. Observance of Shabbat and Festivals

The observance of the Sabbath and the Holidays is of basic importance. Therefore, Tzafon Region USY dedicates itself to strengthening the Sabbath and Holidays by:

1. Encouraging its members to attend services on Holidays and Sabbath.
2. Encouraging its members to join in the Sabbath and the Holiday meals and rituals.
3. Encouraging its groups to sponsor programs in the spirit of the Sabbath and Holidays.
4. Requiring its chapters to schedule their activities so as not to conflict with the law or spirit surrounding the observance of Shabbat and Festivals.

C. Prayer

Prayer is one of the three pillars of Jewish life – Torah (study), Avodah (prayer) and Gemilut Hasidim (good deeds). Tzafon Region USY believes that the Jewish teenager should experience the feelings of kinship and power arising out of public worship and the feelings of the nearness of God arising out of public devotion. Therefore, Tzafon Region USY

1. Requires of its members proper conduct and etiquette during religious services, so as to reflect the appropriate respect due to prayer.
2. Encourages all chapters to hold at least one USY-led service each program year.

D. Kashrut

The observance of dietary laws has inculcated Jewish values and facilitated Jewish survival. Therefore Tzafon Region USY:

1. Requires that its chapters observe the dietary laws at all their functions.
2. Urges its members to observe Kashrut in their lives.
3. Requires the strict observance of the dietary laws of Kashrut at all Regional functions.

E. The Synagogue

The Synagogue is the center of Jewish life. Therefore, Tzafon Region USY is dedicated to strengthening the synagogue by encouraging chapters to increase participation of its members in synagogue programming through:

1. Encouraging members to attend and participate in regular Shabbat and weekday services
2. Having members of USY, wherever and whenever feasible, participate in Synagogue services.
3. Having members of USY regard themselves as youth members of the adult congregation and as such participate in the congregational functions, as well as focusing their own programs around the synagogue.

F. The Jewish Community

No Jewish youth organization is sufficient unto itself. It must share concern for an activity on behalf of all Israel. To this end, Tzafon Region USY dedicates itself to:

1. Cooperating with other groups for the purpose of maintaining and protecting moral and religious standards and ideals throughout the Jewish (and local) Community.
2. Participating in the affairs of the local Jewish community.
3. Accepting its share of responsibility for Jewish rehabilitation and philanthropy wherever it is needed.
4. Dedicating itself to strengthening the ties between Israel and American Jewry.
5. Dedicating itself to the establishment and preservation of full religious freedom in the United States and the world.

G. Centrality of the State of Israel

The State of Israel, the Jewish homeland, should remain among the forefront of the concerns of world Jewry. Because of its connection to Jewish spirituality and the history of our people and its importance to Jewish continuity, promoting awareness and love for Israel shall remain a principal objective for Tzafon. Therefore, Tzafon shall:

1. Encourage its members to study and become knowledgeable of current events in Israel as well as of Jewish history in order to perpetuate accuracy in opinion and to educate other Jews and non-Jews;
2. Encourage its members to express solidarity with the State of Israel and work to secure its survival;
3. Endeavor to dedicate one regional convention per year to the study or discussion of the State of

Israel;

4. Strongly encourage its members to participate in summer programs, college freshman programs, and/or independent trips to Israel so that they may attain a personal connection with the Holy Land.

H. The Kinship of Humanity

The welfare of humanity is the concern of the Jews. Therefore, Tzafon Region USY dedicates itself to cooperating on the local, national and global levels to:

1. Work for democracy.
2. Work for world-wide understanding.
3. Work for human welfare.
4. Work for world peace.

I. The Chapter

Understanding that at the core of Tzafon Region is its chapters, Tzafon strives to help foster their development by requiring all chapters to:

1. Participate in regional and international functions wherever possible by sending representatives;
2. Have at least one fundraising program for Tikkun Olam and one Social Action program yearly.

In turn, Tzafon shall:

1. Provide leadership programming for its members at regional events;
2. Provide programming and leadership assistance to chapters;
3. Assist members in finding financial aid so that they are not prevented from attending regional or international events on the basis of need.

Article III - Membership

Section I – CHAPTER ELIGIBILITY
